Summary

This Statement of Work ("SOW") is issued pursuant to and governed by the terms and conditions of the Master Services Agreement ("MSA") executed between the Parties. In the event of any conflict between this SOW and the MSA, the terms of the MSA shall prevail unless expressly stated otherwise herein.

MakeBttr. provides fully managed hosting and maintenance for Tiger BioSciences digital ecosystem, ensuring enterprise grade uptime, speed, and compliance. Our integrated platform unifies infrastructure, security, and performance into one continuous system, replacing fragmented vendors with a single accountable partner.

Purpose of Services

To deliver a fully managed hosting and maintenance platform that ensures Tiger BioSciences’ digital ecosystem operates with enterprise-grade reliability, security, and scalability. Consultancy’s platform unifies infrastructure, security, performance optimization, and analytics into a single continuous system—allowing the Client to focus on innovation, not maintenance.
